

Carmel School students act with justice when they:

- Treat others as they would like to be treated
- Act as an upstander if they see somebody being treated unfairly
- Tell the truth and act honestly, even when nobody is watching
- Look after their belongings and help others look after theirs
- Follow rules and make ethical choices
- Tell an adult if something feels unsafe or wrong

Carmel School students strive for personal excellence when they:

- Are consistently on time and ready to learn
- Consistently put effort into their studies
- Try hard when things are challenging
- Are organised and well-prepared
- Learn from their mistakes
- Are proud to set a good example to others
- Set goals and work with others to achieve them

Carmel School students are curious when they:

- Eagerly explore new topics and ask 'how?' and 'why?' questions
- Want to learn more and think hard about what they are learning
- Ask meaningful questions
- Listen to others and allow them an equal turn to talk and share
- Seek out different resources to answer their questions
- Consult different people to find out answers
- Share interesting facts and discoveries with their classmates

Carmel School students show their community spirit to school and community when they:

- Work together in groups and value each others' ideas
- Reach out to others and make them feel welcome
- Include others in lunchtime games and activities
- Provide a service to the community
- Look after their classroom
- Look after their uniform ansaaf
- Speak up in class discussions and share

